

News from Over the State

Revoked Judge's Sentence.

The Douglas county commissioners at Omaha practically revoked the sentence of a district judge Saturday and are already sweating over it, as its intended effect is the release of a prisoner. December 22 last James Gallagher, aged 18, was sentenced by Judge Baker to a year in the penitentiary. Later the judge shortened the sentence to six months in jail and stipulated that the prisoner was to remain committed until the costs, amounting to $77.70, were paid. Saturday Attorney Bauman appeared before the board and told the members that the boy's sentence was served, but that the costs were still against him and kept him from his mother, who needs his assistance, but is too poor to pay the accumulated expenses of the prosecution. When the lawyer finished Commissioner Harte, a man of large heart and perfect willingness to accommodate, moved to remit the costs, as "to do otherwise meant," he said, "practically a life sentence for the boy, who, if released might grow up into a noble young man of Christian tendencies." All the commissioners voted aye.

Senator Dietrich Entertains.

One of the pleasantest dinners of the season in Washington was given at the New Willard by Senator Dietrich to a number of his friends who have been enthusiastic supporters of the irrigation bill and it was in commemoration of the passage of that measure that the following gentlemen were drawn together: Elihu Root, secretary of war; Senators Hanna, Hansbrough, Fairbanks, Clark, of Wyoming, Foster, of Washington and Kittredge, of South Dakota; Representatives Burkett, Mercer, Robinson, Stark, Neville, Newlands and Mondell; ex-Senator J. M. Thurston; William E. Andrews, auditor for the treasury department; Charles Rigg, of Beatrice, and G. H. Maxwell, chairman of the executive committee of the National Irrigation association. Speeches were made during the evening by Messrs. Root, Hanna, Fairbanks, Mondell, Burkett, Mercer and Thurston, the latter presiding during the latter part of the evening.

Prisoner Was a Sailor.

Congressman Robinson at Washington received a telegram dated at New York, from J. C. Byrnes, sheriff of Platte county, to the effect that he had captured Alexander C. Cozloski, of Duncan, who was wanted in Platte county for assault upon one Agnes Mostik, of Duncan, aged 17. The defendant fled and enlisted in the navy April 29, 1902. It was learned by the authorities that he was in the navy and Mr. Robinson was asked to have the navy department locate and hold the young man until requisition papers could be obtained. It was found that he was on board the United States steamer Columbia at the Brooklyn navy yard and Sheriff Byrnes proceeded to the place and was soon on his way to Nebraska with the prisoner.

State Sunday School Convention.

Nearly 500 delegates attended the Nebraska Sunday School convention at Central City. Dr. C. G. Barnes, of Albion, told in a striking way how a busy business man can find time to be a Sunday school superintendent and introduce into the school the best modern methods. Rev. J. B. Currens, of Omaha, superintendent of the Home departments, reported 41 Home departments in Nebraska, with 1,776 members and 89 visitors. The treasurer reported the receipt during the past year of $1,806.82, practically all of which has been paid out.

Epworth League Elects.

The second annual convention of the Epworth League closed a three days' session at Fairbury. About 150 delegates were in attendance. He alleges that Mrs. Ferdinand by her fault-finding, interfered with his religious work and his own peace and happiness. Mrs. Ferdinand filed a cross petition and is contesting the case. Rev. Ferdinand has been suspended from a pastorate in Panama because of the domestic trouble.

Money for National Guard.

Adj. Gen. Colby received notice that the national encampment for the Nebraska national guard, which this year amounts to $17,000, will be available after July 1. This means that the state is given credit by the war department for this amount, to be used for equipment and supplies for the military force.

Young Wife Claims Damages.

Jessie G. Henry, nee Dussell, the 17-year-old wife of Robert H. Henry, who is one year his senior, has filed suit at Columbus against Walter Henry, Mary L. Henry and Bey Martyn for damages in the sum of $25,000 for the alleged alienation by conspiracy of her husband's affections and for alleged defamatory statements made at various places as to her moral character. The Henrys are a wealthy pioneer family of that county; the Dussells are widely known and highly respected. The petition for damages makes the brother and the brother-in-law of the estranged husband party defendants with the mother.

Woman Returns to Deserted Babe.

Mrs. S. A. Morgan, a former resident of Hooper, created considerable excitement Monday morning by going into the business place of her brother-in-law and leaving her baby on the counter with the instructions that he could take care of it until he would find her husband. No one could give her information regarding her husband, who has not been living with her for some time. Friends took charge of the baby, and after consulting the county attorney at Fremont Mrs. Morgan returned Tuesday and now has the baby in her care.

In a Good-Natured Way.

This dispatch recently came from Washington: The action of the Nebraska republican convention in endorsing the president's message and reciprocity with Cuba was commented upon quite freely about the senate and the reciprocity senators quizzed Senators Millard and Dietrich in a good-natured way about the manner in which the Nebraska platform differed from their statements in caucus, when Mr. Dietrich declared that four Nebraska congressional districts would go democratic if the reciprocity bill was passed.

New Contract for Convict Labor.

The state board of public lands and buildings made a new contract with the Lee Broom & Duster company for convict labor at the state penitentiary, raising the price per man from 45 cents per day, as provided for in the old contract, to 50 cents per day. The number required to be employed is reduced from 125 to 100.

Boys Save Woman's Life.

Mrs. N. Sidmore attempted to commit suicide by drowning in the Blue river just south of Seward. A couple of boys were fishing under a bridge when Mrs. Sidmore jumped from the bridge, but fell on the bank and before she was able to reach the water the boys caught her and held her until the sheriff and marshal took her in custody.

Well-Known Lawyer Killed.

While returning home from the republican state convention D. M. Strong, of North Bend, well known as an attorney in central Nebraska and once a candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket, was killed in a railroad accident at Valley. In attempting to get on the caboose of a freight train he was thrown under the wheels.

Judgment Against Mosher.

At Seward the case of the Staplehurst bank and others against Charles W. Mosher and others resulted in a verdict against the defendants in the sum of $49,747. The amount each plaintiff recovered is as follows: Staplehurst bank, $13,510.96; Utica bank, $8,292.92; Thomas Bailey, $11,054.69; Jones national bank, $16,888.43.

State Gets Young Alligator.

F. S. Purinton, of Wilcox, has given the state fish hatcheries a one-year-old alligator, which he captured recently in Florida. To the tip of the tail the animal measures about 13 inches. It will be transferred to an aquarium in the hatcheries at South Bend.

New Bank at Scotia.

Secretary Royle, of the state banking board, has issued a charter to the Bank of Scotia. It is capitalized for $5,000.

THE "CALL" WAS A "RAISE."

Story Related by Well-Known Minister to Illustrate the Guilelessness of Preachers.

Rev. Dr. Minot J. Savage tells the following story, of which he claims not to see the point, to illustrate the guilelessness of members of his profession, says the New York Tribune. A clergyman and a prosperous layman were one day discussing the various aspects of the minister's occupation. Finally the layman said, a little bit scornfully: "The trouble with you parsons is that you are not practical."

"But I insist that that is exactly what we are," replied the clergyman, warmly. "No, you're not," said the layman, firmly. "Well, how do you make that out?" inquired the indignant parson.

"Well, I'll tell you. You had an offer to go to Boston at a salary of $5,000 didn't you?"

"Yes."

"And you're getting $3,000 here?"

"Well, what of that?"

"Nothing—except you said you had a call, didn't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, that wasn't a call at all. It was a raise."

Great attention is being paid this year by the Wisconsin Fish Commission to the stocking of the streams and lakes of that state. Fifteen million pike fry and two million muscullunge are to be distributed in the Wisconsin lakes, and it is proposed by the Wisconsin authorities to give the visitor to that state this summer plenty of sport with rod and line.
